KAISER BURNED BONDS

Owned $400,000 Worth of Dutch Securities and Took Odd Way of Saving Them

Amsterdam, Holland, Sept. 16.—It is reported in Amsterdam financial circles that two Dutch notaries are in Berlin to arrange the financial affairs of the former Kaiser.

The transfer of Dutch national securities from Germany has been prohibited, and the only way in which new bonds can be secured by the holdrs of the old ones is to prove that these have been lost.

The Kaiser possessed Dutch national bonds to the amount of more than 1,000,000 florins ($400,000) and it is said that when he found that he was unable to transfer his private fortune to Holland he ordered his relatives in Berlin to burn the bonds.

When the Dutch notaries have established that the bonds were destroyed the Kaiser will obtain new ones in this country. Financial circles are irritated by this evasion of enerally accepted rules.

DENIES REPORT

John Fitzpatrick, Member of Organization Committee, Makes A Statement

Chicago, Sept. 16.—John Fitzpatrick, member of the committee for organization of the steel workers, declared Saturday night the report that the steel strike would be deferred until after the October industrial conference at Washington could not be true. He said the men certainly would strike on September 22.

"It cannot be true," said Fitzpatrick, when informed that information had become public in New York that the strike of iron, steel and tin workers would not go into effect on the scheduled date. The men absolutely will strike on September 22 unless E. H. Gray, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation changes his attitude."

PRAISE FOR HERO

Earl Cornell, This City, Member of First Division Won Laurels

When Alexandrians are viewing the great parade in Washington tomorrow afternoon of the First Division, American fighting heroes—first in action and last to quit—let them remember that they, too, have a hero in our midst who fought in the principal battles of the war in France and helped to drive the Huns over the Rhine into Germany—and he was with the First Division, Co. I, 26th U. S. Infantry, until recently. This same lad was cited for bravery, having volunteered, with three other comrades, to go out on the battle field and rescue their captain (Stallings) who had been severely wounded in action, and sad to relate, our hero is the only known survivor of the quartette of volunteers.

Not only did this same lad distinguish himself as an American soldier, but also won laurels in athletic events having won the 145-pound wrestling championship of the First and Second Division, United States Army, in France and Germany, and for which he will soon receive a handsome championship medal.

Our townsman is modest and quiet and shuns praise for his courage and past good work for Uncle Sam and the American people, nevertheless, he is entitled to our gratitude and respect, and all our citizens should give him credit for doing his duty at home and abroad. His name is Private Earl Cornell, Company I, 26th United States Infantry.

SEIZURE OF FIUME

French and British Troops Barricade Themselves in City

Geneva, Sept. 16.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, supported by the forces of Arditi which accompanied him into Fiume, has proclaimed a union of Fiume with Italy, according to advices received by the Serbian Press Bureau here from Belgrade.

Fiume was plunged into anarchy, the advices declare, when the brigade of Italian troops, which previously had evacuated the city, returned without officers, ejected the local authorities and arrested the Italian General Bittaluga.

The British and French troops in Fiume, the message states, barricaded themselves within their quarters, expecting to be attacked while the crowds in the city tore down the Allied flags.

The Serbian authorities, it is said, still remain in the suburbs of Susak, which is isolated.

WILSON GETS CLOSE TO OREGONIANS

Takes Sixty Mile Auto Trip Through Many Small Towns

GETS NOISY WELCOME

After Speech At Night, Executive Leaves For California Tour—Departure Marked by Demonustration.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 16.—President Wilson yesterday "got close to the people" of small Oregon towns near Portland. The Presidential motor procession, a long line of automobiles, sped at 30 miles an hour over a route of nearly 60 miles. In dozens of little communities the road was lined with spectators. Passing through these places his automobile slowed down so Wilson had a chance to shake hands with many.

The President arrived here at 9 a. m. He had a noisy reception here. It began before his special train pulled into the station. Every crossing had an applauding crowd and at several places people were standing along the tracks holding their hats in their hands.

Tumultuous acclaim from scores of thousands greeted Wilson during his journey through the business section, keeping him on his feet continually bowing and waving his hat right and left. Mrs. Wilson rode at his side.

Wilson's train stopped four hours during the night so it would not reach Portland before 9 a. m. The original time of arrival was 5 o'clock, but this was set back four hours so the President would have a chance to sleep longer and eat his breakfast without doing it in the presence of crowds looking in the window of his car.

Wilson's departure from Seattle Sunday night was marked by a demonstration in which cheering people lined the streets along several blocks of the route from the hotel to the railway station.

The President stood up in his car during a portion of the ride flourishing his hat in a characteristic gesture.

"Star-Spangled Banner" Played by Hotel Orchestra

Berlin, Sept. 16.—For the first time since the United States entered the war against Germany, the orchestra in the Adlon Hotel played yesterday "The Star-Spangled Banner."

The occasion was the visit of Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, who was a guest at the Adlon. The orchestra also played 'Dixie" and other popular American airs. Miss Margan left for France later in the day. Her visit to Berlin was merely a part of a sight-seeing trip, she said.

CONDITION IN BOSTON

Arrival of Guns and Munitions Increases Confidence of Governor

Boston, Sept. 16.—Governor Calvin Coolidge completed the ceremony of locking out the 1,134 striking policemen yesterday, and then proceeded to strengthen the defenses of the town The governor made it clear last night that he considers the strike at an end and most of the citizens agree with him, but he does not intend to be caught with guard down if anything rough is started again.

While the governor deprecates any suggestion of renewed violence, he felt better when 400 riot guns, 20,000 shells loaded with buckshot, and other munitions arrived from the Montpelier Arsenal. The weapons are of the type that the American Expeditionary Forces used with such effect in trench warfare.

The Policemen's Union requested its lawyers to obtain from the courts, if possible, a writ of mandamus or other judicial order to bring about the reinstatement of the strikers.

The Firemen's Union, which holds a federation charter, began balloting on a general strike resolutions.

Guy Oyster, secretary to Samuel Gompers, arrived to assist the strike and to keep the federation chief posted.

SUMMONED TO RETURN

Senator Borah's Presence Needed in Washington Says Lodge

Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, who had arranged to meet Senator Johnson at Des Moines Iowa, and speak with him last night, was summoned from Chicago to Washington by Senator Lodge who felt that the developments in the Capital within the last several hours requires the presence of the full anti-league forces.

A dispatch last nightt said Borah, wired Senator Johnson that he would keep him in daily touch with the Washington situation and that for the present Mr. Johnson could continue his speaking tour.

Formal consideration of the treaty of peace by the Senate began yesterday at exactly 2 o'clock. when it was brought up by Senator Lodge For the first time in American history the treaty is to be considered in "open executive session." Everything said for or against it may be heard by the public. The end of the debate may not be reached in less than three months.

TOO POOR TO BUY UNIFORM

Dozen New York Policemen Will be Tried on Charges of Improper Clothing

New York, Sept. 16.—Several policemen are on trial today at police headquarters on charges of not having proper uniforms.

It was reported at the meeting of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association on Tuesday that 12 patrolmen would be called to answer these charges. It was admitted at the Twenty-eight Precinct Station that at least two men from that station are accused.

In every case, according to officials of the union, the defense will be unable to purchase new uniforms because of lack of funds. At the Twenty-eight Precinct. officers said, the reason given would be that "the tailors did not have the uniforms ready.'"

The inability of patrolmen to keep themselves properly uniformed, as required by the rules of the department, is being made a strong point in the campaign of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association for an increase in wages, which will give a first grade patrolmen a salary of $2,000 a year and proportionately advance the pay of patrolmen of the lower grades.

The cost of a complete equipment for a patrolman is between $150 and $200 according to the quality of the goods purchased. A new overcoat alone costs between $60 and $70.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE

President Carranza, in his message to the Mexican Congress was at pains to inform it that "Mexico had not and would not recognize the Monroe Doctrine."

As the Philadelphia Press suggests, "he should have explained to his Congress what difference that makes and why he thinks it necessary to announce it.

"The Monroe Doctrine is not addressed to Mexico, but to the Powers of Europe, who both recognize and respect it. That policy is embodied in a declaration by President Monroe in opposition to the interference by European powers in the political affairs of the American continent. Its aim was to protect the independence of the new-born republics on the continent and to prevent the menace to the peace and safety of this country that would follow "any attempt on the part of the powers of Europe to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere." It applies to the powers of Asia as well as of Europe.

"It is the policy of the United States and will stand. Mexico never has been asked and will not be asked, to recognize or acquiesce in it. She felt the benefit of it once, when France attempted to establish Maximilian on a Mexican throne. She was made conscious of it again when the proposition was pending to sell a port in Lower California to Japan. That doctrine takes care of itself without Mexico giving it formal recognition. She may be hostile to it, but, nevertheless, we will not allow her to cede any part of her domain to Japan, Germany or any other power of the Eastern Hemisphere. We do not want them intrenched on this continent."

ANOTHER BURLINGAME

When Representative Preston Brooks assaulted Senator Charles Sumner in the Senate chamber in 1856 Massachusetts, Sumner's state was quick to resent it as an attack upon the sovereignty of Massachusetts.. Sumner in his speech on "The Crime of Kansas" had reflected upon Senator Butler, Brooks' father-in-law.

Anson Burlingame, Member of Congress from Massachusetts, denounced Brooks upon the floor of the House, and among other things proclaimbed the sovereignty of the state of Massachusetts had been attacked in the assault upon its senator. His words caused Brooks to send him a challenge, but a duel did not follow, as Burlingame selected squirrel rifles as the weapons and Canada as the meeting place. Brooks claimed that the disturbed conditions of the country made it hazardous for him to pass through certain northern states which would have been necessary to reach Canada.

Governor Coolidge, who at present fills the gubernatorial chair of the old Bay State, is as jealous of the sovereignty of Massachusetts as was Burlingame.

Determination "to defend the sovereignty of Massachusetts" was expressed by the Governor in a telegram sent Sunday night to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. The telegram was in reply to one received from the labor leader Saturday night, in which Gompers asked him to take "a broad view" of the situation brought about by the policemen's strike precipitated the order forbidding them to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor.

The Governor told Gompers that the suggestion of President Wilson that orders forbidding the policemen of the city of Washington to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor be held in abeyance pending the labor conference to be held at the White House on October 6 did not apply to Boston. Reciting the fact that 19 members of the Boston policemen's union had been tried for violators of the order against affiliation and had been removed, and that the places of the other strikers had been declared vacant, he added:

"I can suggest no authority outside the Court to take further action."

The power of Gompers is greater than that of any of the officials of Massachusetts, asserted Senator Thomas, of Colorado, in the Senate yesterday. Senator Thomas drew his conclusion from the circumstance that the striking policemen in Boston called off their strike when Gompers told them to do so although they had refused to obey the orders of the city and State authorities.

Praising Governor Coolidge for his stand against the police union and reckening him to Mayor Ole Hanson of Seattle, Senator Thomas said:

"The governor of Massachusetts an American born citizen, has measured up to the standard of the mayor of Seattle, a nautralized citizen."

LAND OF THE I. W. Ws.

Dispatches from Seattle, read between the lines make, make it plain that the Presidential party experienced relief when they moved out of a place where discord and chronic unrest prevail. The dispatches are significant. Here is one:

"Out of the turmoil and noisy demonstration with which Seattle greeted the President of the United States, few Americans can derive confident satisfaction. Mr. Wilson's speech about the League of Nations was incidental, indeed, relatively important. What was vital and disturbing to Eastern observers was the atmosphere of unrest, of mob psychology and mob inclination which made the whole Presidential party nervous throughout the 36 hours of their stay in Seattle."

EXAMPLE TO OFFICIALS

Governor Coolidge, of Massachusetts acted and spoke like a statesman when he telegraphed Samuel Gompers that your assertion that the Commissioner was wrong cannot justify the wrong of leaving the city unguarded." There was no fear of the power of the labor leader in that message, and there was a great plenty of common sense and perception of the fundamental of the issue. It was precisely the sort of message that should have been sent to any labor leader, no matter whether great or small, of proven patriotic or otherwise, who attempted to entice the authorities of the State of Massachusetts to parley and temporize with men who had forgot their sworn duty, as police officers, to guard the public welfare and to know no other authority than that constituted by the laws of the Commonwealth.

This country passes now through troublous times, but the passage will be made successfully if public officials, Federal and State and of whatever station, think as clearly and act as firmly as Governor Coolidge. They always will find support from the people. A vast hubbub may arise here or there from some group thinking and talking wildly and selfishly as a group but the great body of the American people are sound, and will rally to the support of sound American leadership. The people who stand as one man to send their sons and their wealth unstintingly across 3,000 miles of submarine infested seas to crush Prussianism will not permit the overthrow here at home of the antithesis of Prussianism—that is Americanism.—(Baltimore Sun.

DODSON SOUNDS CALOMEL' DOOM

The 'Liver Tone' Man Warns Folks Against the Sickening, Salivating Drug

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you lose a day.

Calomel is mercury! When it comes into contact with sour bile, it crashes into it, breaking it up. Then is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish, if liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous, go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it can not saivate or make you sick.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purposes of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (d) of this section. The term "Council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants of cities.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

AUTO TURNS TURTLE

Two Newspaper Men, Members of President Wilson's Party Killed and Three Injured

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 16.—Driven at breakneck speed along the Columbia Highway, twelve miles from here, yesterday, an automobile bearing three of the Washington correspondents accompanying President Wilson's party, left the road, turned turtle on an incline and left two dead and three injured men in its wake.

Ben F. Allen, for fifteen years the Washingon correspondent of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, was instantly killed, as was James R. Patterson, 73 years old, the owner and driver of the car.

The injured were Robert T. Small, Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Public Ledger; Stanley M. Reynolds, Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, and Arthur D. Sullivan, a reporter for the Portland News.

DEFIANCE OF THE ORDER

Policemen and Firemen of Macon Refuse to Dissolve Unions

Macon, Ga., Sept. 16.—On the heels of the unconditional surrender of 2,000 textile workers and their agreement to return to work as soon as the mills reopen, police and firemen last night have defied the order of the civil service commissioners that their unions must be dissolved at once.

Chief of Police Warren McWilliams, who was promoted on Saturday when Chief Bowden resigned, declared at 9 o'clock last night that the policemen who report off duty at midnight will be ordered to turn in their badges, or their union cards. Former service men, many of whom were members of the Rainbow Division, are ready to protect the city, it is announced. These men have been assembled at the different armories, sworn in as sheriff's deputies.

It was reported last night that Fire Chief L. M. Jones, who has been ordered to obtain the union cards of all firemen or resign, has refused to carry out the order. He is a member of the union.

The firemen are standing firm, even hooting the members of the civil service commission when the order was read at the different engine houses of the city.

"They'll have to put us out wih guns," was the comment at the headquarters engine house.

The police say they will remain on the job regardless of whether the military take charge.

The next move to dissolve the two unions is not known at his time.

The commissioners demanded the dissolution of the two unions yesterday afternoon after a mass meeting of citizens had demanded that the commissioners dissolve the policemen's and firemen's unions or be impeached. The action of the mass meeting was indorsed by the Builder's League five minutes after the meeting adjourned.

CREW OF CAR SHOT

Pole Pulled From Wire by Bandits, Who Empty Revolvers at the Motorman and Conductor

Allentown, Pa., Sept. 16.—As the result of a daring hold-up of a trolley car early Sunday, Motorman Victor Bachman, aged 35, with a wife and three children, is dying in the Allentown Hospital, and Conductor John Gaston, aged 22, is confined to his home at Coplay, The men were bringing home the last car from Egypt, when the trolley pole sudenly flew off and the car, containing seven passengers, was plunged in darkness at a lonely spot, flanked by cornfields. The bandits had stretched a wire from a pole to a tree to throw off the trolley pole, and, lest this fail, also had tampered with a bond wire to blow out a fuse.

Motorman Bachman ran to the rear of the car to place the trolley on the wire when he was confronted with a masked man, who thought him the conductor and demanded his money Bachman tried to overpower the thug who emptied his .32-calibre revolver One bullet hit Bachman over the heart but was deflected by a rib. Another entered his back through his left hand entered his back and also was deflected. One went through his left hand, another through his left upper arm and a fifth grazed his neck.

Conductor Gaston yelled to the passengers to hide their money, at the same time hiding his day's receipts of $9 and his gold watch in the sand box and saving them. Then, seizing a switch-iron, he ran back through the car to aid his wounded motorman. As he reached the rear platform another masked outlaw fired from the front platform, tearing away the third finger of Gaston's right hand. Gastor pulled the air whistle, which was heard for miles, and the highwaymen fled. The heroic crew managed to run two miles into Coplay, still sounding the whistle, and aid soon reached them.

BERGER ATTACKS WILSON

Victor Berger, Milwaukee Socialist, made his final argument for his right to a seat in the House before the House Elections Committee yesterday. It was a bitter denuciation of President Wilson, the league of nations, the Attorney General, the courts that convicted him of violating the espionage act, and the capitalists.

He declared that the change of mind of the President which caused the United States to declare war "was brought about by certain capitalistic interests."

Berger declared that he was convicted by a hand picked jury in Chicago, aproved by the "American Protective League."

"Members of Congress would have been as guilty of espionage for their utterances. They were protected because they were members of Congress." declared Berger.

Berger then claimed that speeches of Champ Clark. Claude Kitchin, James R. Mann, Representative Mondell and William E. Mason would be in that class.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Says Nothing Like Plain Argo-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Solid, Stay There Flesh and Muscle and Increase Strength, Vim, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Physicians claim there is nothing that will increase weight, strength and endurance like organic phosphate commonly known by druggists as argo phosphate, it is inexpensive and is sold by all leading druggists everywhere under a guarantee to give satisfaction or money refunded. Weakness and thinness are usually due to starved nervods conditions.

Our bodies need more phosphates than are contained in the foods we eat.

If you wish a more rounded figure and plump well-developed arms, neck and bust in place of hollows you should simply take plain argo-phosphate as it builds up and restores run-down nervous conditions by phosphatizing the system. It transforms the appearance and an increase in weight is often times quickly produced.

The increase in weight also aids in improving the general health. Sleeplessness, nervousness, lack of energy and ambition quickly disappear.

Pale cheeks are changed to rosy ones and dull eyes become bright.

Miss Lena Brown of Atlanta, Ga., who only weighed 90 pounds reports that she gained 10 pounds in two weeks time and says argo-phosphate has made a different person of her and she never felt better in her life.

Special Notice—Owing to the fact so many physicians and druggists are recommending argo-phosphate for relieving all nervous, worn-out debilitated conditions and the unusually will be found in the market numerous substitutes for the genuine article. All imitations are inferior preparations and owing to its unusual flesh producing qualities it should not be used by any one unless they desire to put on flesh and increase in weight.

HURT IN STRIKE CLASH

Guardsmen Rushed To North Carolina Town.

Albemarle, N. C., Sept. 16.—As the result of strikers at the cotton mills here attempting to prevent non-union men from going to work yesterday there was a clash at one of the gates of Whitcassett mills in which two persons, Sheriff Blalock, of Stanley county, and a striker were struck by bullets. It is not believed they are seriously hurt.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 16.—On request of the Mayor of Albemarle, Governor Bickett yesterday ordered National Guardsmen from Lexington Statesville and Carthage to proceed to that place, where a strike of textile workers has been in progress several weeks.

An attempt to release rioters, arrested during disturbances Sunday night, was feared by the town authorities.

WILSON TO BE "CAGED"

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 16.—President Wilson is to be "caged" in San Diego When he speaks at the huge stadium here on Friday he will stand in a glass 'cage" with 250 members of the press and the official reception committee.

This precaution is to be taken because of his physician's advice against outdoor speaking.

The thousands who fill the big stadium, however, will hear every word he utters through a new invention, the "magnabox," which magnifies the voice of a speaker and carries it a great distance.

TANKS STILL BURNING

Though Fire is Under Control, Firemen Have No Way of Stopping the Flames.

New York, Sept. 16.—Raging fires from which giant smoke clouds pour still burned at the plant of the Standard Oil Company in Broklyn yesterday, where 30 tanks of oil and by products already have been destroyed With the fire under control, Assistant Fire Chief Joe Martin said there was no way of stopping the flames, but firemen will guard surrounding property to keep other tanks and buildings cooled to prevent ignition. The damage, he said, might reach $5,000,000.

The fire started shortly after noon Saturday.

RICHMOND THEATRE

"Almost Married," which comes to the Richmond Theatre tonight, is an irresistible combination of love and laughter in which May Allison, the golden girl of the screen, is seen at her adorable best. The play tells the romance of a girl who leaves her Alpine home to come to America and win fame and fortune with her voice. Before she left the mountains, however, she met and fell in love with a young millionaire who, though loving her, basely deserted her. On becoming the leading favorite in a famous New York review she meets the father of the young man and between them they concoct a plan which brings the delinquent youth to his knees. The complications which ensue make a play of rare originality replete with incidents of love, adventure and humor that gives the radiant star unlimited scope for her inimitable talents.

Corns 'Tween Toes? Use Easy "Gets-It"

Any Corn or Callus Comes Off Peacefully, Gloriously. Never Fails.

It is easy for "Gets-It" to reach "hard-to-get-at" corns, and better yet, it is easy to remove them, because "Gets-It" makes them come right off just like a banana peel. You can try to dig or drag out your corns with a knife, or slice them with a "bloody" razor, or use bandages and tape and wrap up your toe into a package, but that's the "treat-em-rough," painful, foolish way. Use 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It"—that's the peaceful, safe, common-sense way that never fails. You reach the corn easily with the little glass rod in the cork of every "Gets-It" bottle. It does not hurt the true flesh. Try it, trot and smile! It's a blessing; never fails. "Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

INGOMAR THEATRE

In "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which has been picturized for Paramount by Hugh Ford, with Marguerite Clark, the beautiful Paramount star in the stellar role, Miss Clark appears as Lovey Mary, that delightful tomboy whose pranks in the story won her so many juvenile admirers. The picture, which is on view at the Ingomar Theatre tonight, is a remarkable one in many respects, its situations being dramatic and its heart appeal to old and young alike, irresistible. The adaptation was made by Eve Unsell with splendid effect, and the supporting cast is of the highest class.

GRAND THEATRE

This question is answered by Earle Williams in a drama of tremendous power, "A Gentleman of Quality," the Vitagraph picture which will be seen in the Grand Theater tonight. Mr. Williams has the role of the young American, a victim of aphasia, who, by a strange turn of fate, marries a beautiful woman, who insists he is her husband, although he feels he is not. His happiness is marred by a fear that some day the rightful husband will return, and within him there is a constant struggle between love for her and his own sense of honor. Yet he knows that to leave her would be to kill her. And finally comes word that the husband is alive and in India.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
